History

Kumaraswamy Temple is located at Doddapalanahalli village, Koratagere Taluk, Tumakuru district.

It consists of a square garbhagriha, a pradakshinapatha, a navaranga and an open mukhamantapa. Except for the the garbhagriha which appears to be in its original form; the rest of the portions are newly constructed. The pillars are all plain. At the entrance of the navaranga, stands shallow dvarapalas on either side. The outer wall and the adhithana are newly constructed with stone and cement. The sikhara or tower too is entirely new.
