History

The Brahmeshwara temple is located at Kikkeri village in K.R.Pete taluk, Mandya District

Brahmeshwara temple is an ornate ekakuta temple. The temple has Girbhagriha, Sukanasi and wonderful half open Navaranga to which Nandi mantapa also attached in front of the main entrance. The temple has regular projections, and vimana is pyramidical with regular vimana and talas. the sukhawasi is projected from the main vimana and has a small opening in the front, like a shrine. There are sculptures on the outer wall. In the Navaranga magnificent madanika sculptures are found. The Nandi is also finely carved. The Brahmeshwara temple is built in a prakara of the same period which has an entrance mantapa.
