History

This trikuta temple consists of three garbhagrahas each with an antarala and a common sabhmandapa. In each garbhagraha is a Sivalinga. Inside the sabhmandapa are four pillars. There are four hero stones, two inscriptions slabs and a Surya image all fixed into the wall. The temple seems to be originally dedicated to god Narasimha. The sabhmandapa has an inscription, which records the grant of village Umbaravani to the god Narasimha.
