History

The Channakeshava temple is located in Dharmapura in Hunsuru taluk, Mysuru district.

This temple consists of a garbhagriha, a sukhanasi, a navaranga and a porch and is entered by the flight of steps. The outer walls of the temple, raised on the basement of 4 cornices, are plain. They are relieved by a turret bearing shallow niches, columns and pilasters. The turrets on the outer walls are surmounted by Kalasa. Both the sanctum and the navaranga are square with flattened sides and indentations. The well-carved navaranga doorway is flanked by dwarapalas. The 4 central pillars are all 16 fluted and have 8-sided mouldings. The garbhagriha doorway has Gajalakshmi on the lintel. Inside the sanctum is the 7' high image of Chennakeshava in sambhanga on pedestal with garuda carved in front and a stone prabhavali. The prabhavali has the ten incarnations of Vishnu in scrolls.
