History

Ranganatha Swamy Temple is located at Magadi Town in Magadi taluk, Ramanagara district

It is a large structure with two mahadvaras, on the east and the west, surmounted by lofty gopuras, the east tower being taller than the other. The temple consists of a garbhagriha, a sukanasi, a navaranga and a three doorway mukhamantapa. The navaranga has a good ceiling about 3 feet deep. At the sides of the navaranga entrance are two large stucco elephants with their trunks raised over the figure of Lakshmi on the door-lintel. In the garbhagriha is a square stone basin with a round stone in it. This round stone is said to represent the god Ranganatha. Behind it stands a figure, about 1.2m high, of Srinivasa. There is also a seated figure in the garbhagriha, said to represent the sage Mandavya.
