History

The Bastions or Batheries are located at Srirangapatna town in Srirangapatna taluk, Mandya District. The bastions or Bateries at Srirangapatna are mainly in square and rectangular shape built at the corners of the fort to suit the difference planning. Built with heavy blocks of the stones, ramped with mud and pebble or rubble stones. The projections walls all around the top of the bastions are built. The space above used to have long range cannons moveable in angle. At Srirangapatna there are Sultan bateri and Kalgowdana bateri. In the absence of the epigraphs however no proper identification of the names are possible.
