

21. KALIKA DEVI TEMPLE

Place – Sirasangi

District : Belagavi
Taluk : Savadatti
Locality : Sirasangi

Geo – Coordinates:
Lat : 15.876645° N
Long : 75.257029 ° E

History

The temple consists of a garbhagraha, an antarala and a sabhamandapa. In front of the sabhamandapa connecting a big common mukhamangapa which is in between two more garbhagrahas, one to the right having an image of Bhairava and other to the having an image of Kalikadevi. These portions were added. The kalika garbhagraha has a sikhara. The mukhamandapa has a sloping roof. There is a kaksasana around the mukhamandapa. In the Kalika temple is an inscription slab dated 1185 A. D. of Someshwara IV. It is mentioned that one Habbeya Nayaka constructed the temple of Habbeshwara and prasanna Bhairava at Rishyashringa.

3D Point Cloud

