History

Gangadhareshwara temple with Nandi is located at Turuvekere Town, Turuvekere Taluk, Tumakuru district.

In a fine mantapa in the patalankana (or front hall on a lower level than the central hall) of the Gangadhareshwara temple is a beautifully carved Nandi about 2 m long, 1.5 m broad, and 2 m high. This is of hard black stone and though several centuries old, still retains a brilliant polish. This reminds us of the bull on the Chamundi Hill, which is larger than this
