History

The Trineshwara Temple is located in palace complex at Mysuru city. This temple is a large structure with a Prakara (enclosure) and a Mahadvara with a lofty Gopura. The 2 niches within the Mahadvara enshrine figures of Ganesha and Bhairava. In the northwest of the Prakara a number of Naga stones are set up beneath a Pipal tree. They are well-carved with a linga or a figure of Krishna at the top. The Prakara is surrounded by severallingas and shrines dedicated to various dieties. The Navaranga has 2 entrances. To the left of the Sukhanasi entrance is a 1 Y2' high image of sage Trinabindu and the god Trineshwara is named after him. The shrine facing the south entrance contains the processional image. In a niche in the Prakara are two standing figures representing the kings, Kantirava Narasaraja Wodeyar and Dodda Devaraja Wodeyar.
