History

The Mahalingeshwara Temple is located at Varuna in Mysuru taluk and District.

The Mahalingeshwara temple, also known as Bhuteshwara temple, is of considerable antiquity. This Ganga construction consists of a small garbhagriha, a sukhanasi, a navaranga supported by 12 finely carved pillars and an outer pavilion.

Among the notable sculptures found in the temple, the image of Mahishasuramardini, the Saptamatrika (7-goddesses) and the scenes from Ramayana are fascinating.
