History

The Ramalingeshwara temple is located in Matakere in H.D.Kote taluk, Mysuru district.

The Rameshwara temple is also located at the confluence of Taraka and Kapila rivers, was constructed in 3 stages: Among the linga cells on the West in the prakara, the cell containing a 4' high image of Shankaranarayana in the abhaya mudra is important.

It is a fine specimen of the Harihara form of images, popular in the Chola period. Likewise the 4' high image of the goddess of the temple is also significant. In the garbhagriha is a linga. In the navaranga are the figures of Ganesha, Surya, Chandra and Durga. It is approached by a flight of steps and is supported by 4 central pillars.
