History

The Kalaseshwara temple is located at Kalasa village in Mudigere Taluk, Chikkamagalur District. The Kalaseshwara temple has a modern enclosure wall. It consists of a garbhagriha, a navaranga and a mukhamantapa. The sanctum contains a 9" high Linga tilted towards the north. The navaranga entered through entrances to the north and south comprises 16 sided wheel topped granite pillars. The temple has a pyramidal stone 'Shikhara' with a metal kalasa. Near the steps and the main gate is a 2' long reclining lion of Soapstone. It is of Hoysala craftsmanship.
