History

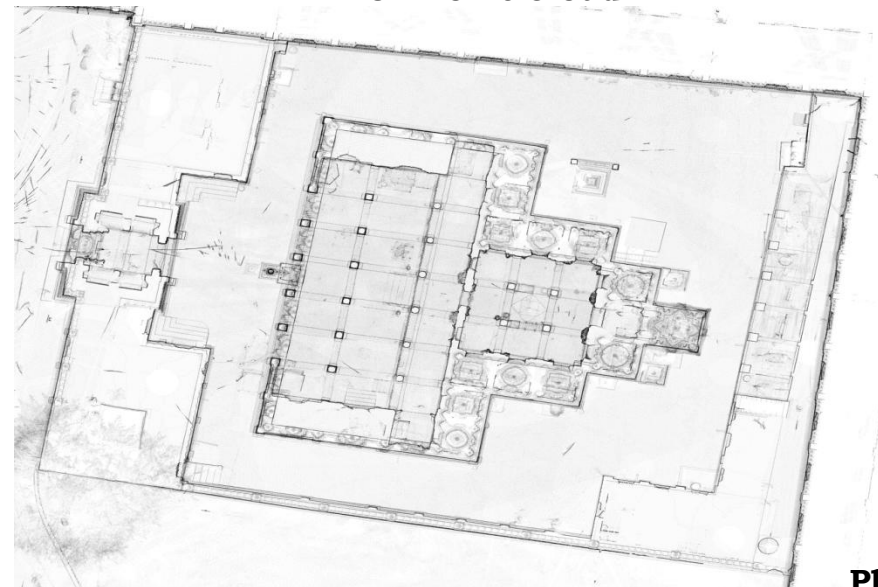

The Prasanna Krishnaswamy Temple is located in palace complex at Mysuru city.

The Prasanna Krishnaswamy temple, built by Krishnaraja Wodeyar III comprises about 40 inscribed metallic images of gods, goddesses, saints and sages. In the sanctum-sanctorum is an image of lord Krishna made of Chlorite Schist.

On the exterior of the temple is the sculpture of sage Atri. Like Varahaswamy temple this temple is also known for the murals on the walls of the navaranga.

The murals depict stories & om Bhagavatha. The murals of this temple and of Varahaswamy Temple are excellent examples of 19 Century Mysore paintings
