History

The Diwan Purnaiah's Residence is located at Yelandur town in Yalandur taluk, Chamarajanagar District.

Yelandur was given as Jagir to Purnaiah in 1807 AD by the Maharaja Krishnaraja Wodeyar 111. Then after, the Dewan seems to have settled down at Yelandur only. The building in typical Indo sarasanic style was built for the residence of Purnaiah. The building is a fine two storey structure. The building has high ceiling and pillars, an open verandah, a large drawing room, are quite spaciouly built.
