History

The temple faces east. It comprises a garbhagraha, antarala and a sabhmandapa. The garbhagraha contains a Sivalinga. In the lalatabimha of the door frame of the antarala are tiny sculptures of Brahma, Mahesvara and Visnu. The antarala doorframe has Jalavatayanas. In the sabhmandapa are four free standing pillars. The interior of the sabhamandapa has devakosthas between the wall pilasters. In front of the temple is an inscription, which records a grant to the Hollesvara temple of Manigatti.
