History

The temple is situated below the ground level. The temple is locally called Nelgudi. It consists of a garbhagraha, antarala and a large Sabhamandapa. In the garbhagraha is a Sivalinga. The lalatabimba of the garbhagraha doorframe contains a tiny Gajalakshmi bimba. There are four free standing pillars in the sabhamandapa. In the sabhamandapa is a Ganesha sculpture and two hero stones.
