History

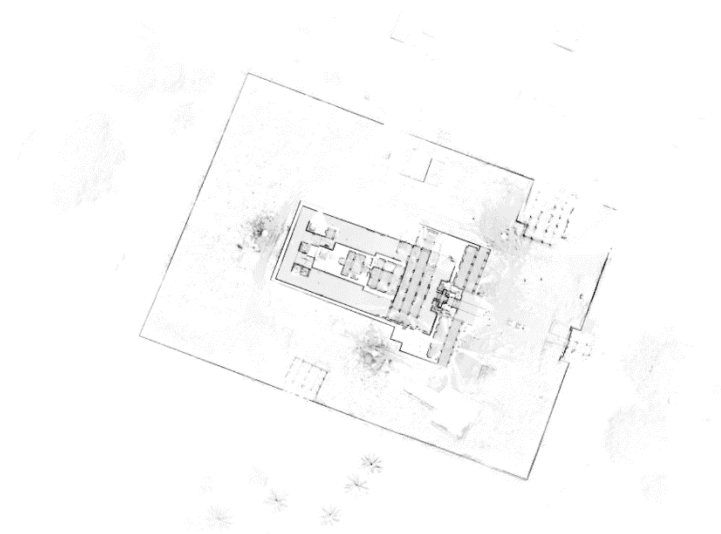

Sri Eshwara temple is located at Virupakshipura in Mulabagilu taluk, Kolar district.

Lekkanna Dandesha a general of Vijayanagara and the author of Shiva Tatva chintamani built this temple at Virupakshi . Which is 4 K.M from Mulbagal. Apart from the main temple which is exquisitely carved and decorated, there is a temple for Simha Vahana Durga . Durga is having four arms. A lion is in attendance in front of Parvathi in the temple. The beautiful temple tank is called Manmatha Pushkarini.

The entrance Gopura of the temple is in good shape and is quite majestic.
