History

The Narasimhaswamy temple is located at Melukote village in Pandavapura taluk, Mandya District. The temple is situated on the hillock. It is a Dravidian structure consisting of the girbhagriha, sukhanasi and Navaranga. Navaranga has granite pillars with flowers and medallions. The deity inside the girbhagriha is Yoganarasimha seated in yogic posture with yogapatta. The temple has a large prakara wall and gopura on the Northern side of the hill, steps leading to the temple are built from the fort hill to the temple.
