History

The Rameshwara temple is located at Gundlupete town village in Gundlupete taluk, Chamarajanagar District.

The Rameshwara temple, the earliest of the temples, is the only one with the datable inscriptions. The temple, built by Kumara Kampanna, has a Garbhagriha, a sukhanasi, a 4-pillared navaranga with an entrance porch both to the east and to the south. The outer wall has the octagonal cornice, niches and pilasters bearing ornamented mouldings along with sharply curved eaves with rows of kirtimukhas.
