

21. Krishnamurthy's Bungalow

Place - Srirangapatna

District : Mandya
Taluk : Srirangapatna
Locality : Srirangapatna

Geo - Coordinates:
Lat : 12.411153°N
Long : 76.685185°E

History

The Krishnamurthy's Bungalow is located at Srirangapatna town in Srirangapatna taluk, Mandya District. The structure is built of brick and lime mortar. It is a large structure built in Indo-European style. Consists of large square and ablong rooms meant for residence. The façade of the structure is facing to the north, while another entrance is open towards the river. It is an imposing structure with raised high ceiling. Large door and windows, have plastered projections finished with fine designs. This building was the residence of British officers and the bungalow of Diwan Purnaiah, Today known as Krishnamurthy bungalow.

3D Point Cloud

Plan