History

The Welling Lodge is located at Mysuru city in Mysuru District.

Among the European houses, the Wellington Lodge opposite the west gate of the Government house, is a significant historical structure. The building was occupied by the great Duke of Wellington, then Colonel Arthur Wellesley.

The memorial tablet in the monument bears testimony to the historical association of the building. Accordingly, the tablet states this house was occupied by Col. Arthur Wellesly, afterwards of Duke of Wellington, when in political in charge of Mysuru during 1788-1801.
